SAN JUAN ISLANDS, WA

A pampered paddle

Think of Savor Seattle's two-night gourmet kayaking tours as glamping on the water. Guides schlep your gear and steer you toward orcas, ospreys, and views of the Olympics; all you have to do is paddle. And each time your feet hit dry land, you're welcomed with a meal inspired by Northwest ingredients. What you'll get: a glass of local Syrah on a secluded beach while someone else braises short ribs. What you won't miss: Doing dishes outdoors. Jun 17-19, Jul 1-3, and Aug 19-21; $799; savorseattletours.com —JESS THOMSON
